

The Strategic Consulting Group's consultants have the hands-on STRATEGIC PLANNING experience to help your organization clearly define and reach their desired goals. Our team provides strategic and practical solutions to help overcome CHALLENGES. We work with a range of private and not for profit organizations across Canada and the USA. Our approach is to develop strategies by using Predictive Analytics, Strategic Visual Harvesting and Cognitive Diversity. Integrating the three, hyper focuses a team, eliminates social influences, inherent biases, and delivers highly predictable and accurate strategic solutions.

From one on one coaching, workshops, retreats and consulting mandates our services are practical and realistic with measurable results, geared to your schedule, needs and challenges.

Our Approach

Our approach designs a more effective and efficient framework that empowers staff to aspire to reach goals with well defined risks, mitigation strategies and tasks.
